Description

This handcrafted piece is double sided. On the front it shows a Native American symbol of the 'Morning Star', which has the meaning of 'Guidance'. The reverse side of the necklace shows the symbol of the 'Arrow', meaning 'Protection'.

The symbols have been burned into the wood by pyrography.

The wooden carved piece is attached to a long thong by wire and is finished with 2 small wooden beads. The thong is adjustable to allow the necklace to be placed over the head easily and then shortened to the desired length.

This necklace has been handmade from a soft pine wood and stained to the colour of rosewood. It has been finished with woodwax oil to give it protection and a lovely shine.

The charm measures approximately 2.4cm in diameter and 0.5cm in depth.

The necklace is presented in a black gift box made from 100% recycled card.
