Description

This handcrafted piece is double sided. On the front it shows a Native American symbol of the Hummingbird, which has the meaning of 'Love and Happiness'. This has been burned into the wood by pyrography.

The reverse side of the necklace has a hand carved heart shape and two stars.

The wooden carved piece is attached to a long thong by wire and is finished with 3 small wooden beads. The thong is adjustable to allow the necklace to be placed over the head easily and then shortened to the desired length.

This necklace has been handmade from a soft pine wood and stained to the colour of rosewood. It has been finished with woodwax oil to give it protection and a lovely shine.

The charm measures approximately 3.2cm in length x 2.5cm in width x 0.5cm in depth

The necklace is presented in a black gift box made from 100% recycled card.
